

Revive Wesleyan Youth Residency

Summary:

The Revive Wesleyan Youth Residency is an all-encompassing, one-year commitment for college graduates who are looking for real hands-on experience in the youth ministry world. This program will not only offer a direct path to increasing your personal performance and growth, but it will also resource you with the skills necessary to lead a ministry of your own.

Our program is designed to train, build, and prepare the next generation of youth pastors for the local church. Through our measurable goals and timeline map, residents will progressively increase their knowledge and ability to lead ministry. You can also expect to receive weekly personal coaching from the current youth team, ministry expert drop-ins, and monthly sessions with the lead pastor of our church.

This residency program will prepare you for serving in full-time ministry through a hyper-focused lens of “what happens behind the scenes” while encouraging a healthy spiritual rhythm and lifestyle. We trust that the one-year commitment will be long enough to have a great experience without causing you to miss other opportunities!
